LETTER FROM THE MLA OFFICE STAFF The Conference is Here!

May is finally here, and with it comes our most anticipated event of the year—the 2025 MLA|DLA Annual Conference!

We're just days away from gathering in beautiful Ocean City for a week of learning, connection, and celebration of our library community. Whether this is your first conference or you're a seasoned attendee, we can't wait to see you there next week!

As we look ahead to June, we have several exciting events on the horizon. Mark your calendars for The Joy of Queernorm on June 2nd, where we'll will discuss how Queernorm got started, and why it is important to include in your Readers' Advisory.

Our popular MLA Chats return on June 16th, with an informal discussion on Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion in Libraries and Library Work. And don't miss Building Up Fun: Engagement for Everyone on June 17th, featuring practical strategies to motivate and engage your library staff.

This newsletter is packed with details about these events and more. As always, we're grateful for your dedication to Maryland's libraries and the communities we serve.

In this training hosted by Readers' Advisory Interest Group we will discuss Queernorm (or Queer normative) fiction, how it got started, and why it is important to include in your Readers' Advisory. During the training, we will provide book talks for our favorite Queernorm titles and provide you with lots of other resources including book/author recommendations, websites, and other forms of media.

3. Increase open and honest communication
4. Increase sense of shared responsibility
5. Share hopes and plans for action and change

This session will be facilitated by EDI Panel members William Wallace of Wicomico Public Library and Cassie Miller of Baltimore County Public Library.
