LETTER FROM THE MLA OFFICE STAFF

Welcome to November's edition of The Happenings! As we move deeper into fall, we're grateful for the opportunity to connect with you and share what's ahead.

This month, we're excited to highlight an important conversation, MLA Chats: Native American Heritage Month - Celebration without Appropriation (November 6), a conversation with Hope Khodaei of the Piscataway Conoy Tribe.

This event offers a valuable opportunity to explore meaningful ways to honor Native American Heritage Month in our libraries while ensuring our programming remains respectful and authentic. We hope you'll join us for what promises to be an enriching discussion.

We're also pleased to share that we received a very strong response to our call for conference proposals, and our conference committee is reviewing submissions. Presenters can expect to hear from us in December.

As we approach the holiday season, we encourage you to take this time for reflection and planning. Whether you're thinking about professional goals for the new year or simply taking a well-deserved breath, know that our community is here to support you.

Thank you for all you do to strengthen libraries across Maryland.

Warm regards,
Maryland Library Association
